
FAREWELL, OLD SCHOOL—Many a nostalgic tear is being shed as the old Hobart High school built in 1877 goes down at the hands of a wrecking crew to make way for a new modern Junior High soon to be erected in its place, on 4th St. in Hobart. Any number of families have seen three generations go through its doors. (Herald Photo)